

Why do customers buy from you?

Part A: On Your Own

1. What is your product or service? How it is different from your competitors?

2. List why your customers choose your product and/or service.

Part B: After the discussion

3. What have you learned from this discussion about business development that you want to apply to your own organization?
